

IHP
INSTITUTE FOR HEALTH POLICY

THE INSTITUTE FOR HEALTH POLICY

---

The Institute for Health Policy (IHP) is a centre of excellence in health policy research, working both in Sri Lanka and internationally. We provide a creative and challenging professional environment with opportunities for advancement for individuals interested in research that makes a difference. In Sri Lanka, we work closely with the Ministry of Health, other ministries, and development partners. Internationally, we work with health ministries, international agencies such as WHO, World Bank and ADB, and leading universities such as Harvard University. Our work spans health systems, health economics, social protection, and equity, and in the past year much of our work has focused on the national and global challenge of COVID-19. We are looking for motivated and talented individuals with an interest in our core areas of work with strong qualitative and/or strong analytical skills.

MEDICAL INTERNS

(Ref: IHP/HR/2105)

Should have a local/foreign MBBS degree from a well-recognized University. Should be interested in research, be computer literate, have good communication skills and be fluent in English. Proficiency in either Sinhala or Tamil is beneficial.

---

Ability to take initiative and complete tasks with enthusiasm is a must. The job will be mostly working from home, but may require occasional visits to the office. Full-time commitment is required. However, part time (20 hours per week) position may be considered.

Interested applicants should email their CVs with a cover letter to jobs@ihp.lk explaining details of further studies and future goals.

www.ihp.lk